CONFLICTING

Public is Warned Against Rumors. The official news bureau of the army and admiralty has issued a warning to the public against placing the slightest reliance in the many rumors afloat daily regarding victories or defeat or concerning the disabling of England's ships. "These are, without exception, baseless," the warning says.

Brussels, Aug. 14.—The German casualties in the engagement at Haelen Wednesday were 3,000 dead and wounded. The Germans apparently sacrificed their men without any scruples. During the fight the Germans were obliged to pass two bridges over the Gethe and Velpse rivers where they were exposed to a heavy fire. The retiring Germans left piles of dead and wounded at these bridges.

The same carnage occurred on the road from Threke to Haelen where the German cavalry, exposed to the galling guns of the Belgians, fell in droves. The German infantry and cavalry had a similar reception near Colfaeking. The success of the Belgian armies is considered particularly important here as most of the Belgian troops participating had not been under fire before.

Russia Has 5,500,000 Men at Front. London, August 14.—A dispatch to the Central News from Rome says that according to trustworthy information from St. Petersburg, Russia has mobilized 2,000,000 men on the German and Austrian frontiers, half a million on the Turkish and Rumanian frontiers, while 3,000,000 men are held in reserve.

Mob Burns German Ship. London, August 14.—The Copenhagen correspondent of the Daily News reports that dispatches from Antwerp say that an anti-German mob set fire to a German ship in the harbor at Antwerp. After it was destroyed the mob pillaged another German vessel.

WAR BULLETINS. Two battered warships, either French or British, reach Hong Kong with many wounded after reported engagement with German cruisers Scharnhorst and Goebenau. Danish steamer captain reports passing seven sunken German vessels, believed warships, off east coast of England.

New York Herald (German) has unverified dispatches stating seven British dreadnaughts and eight German torpedobats were destroyed in North Sea. French official statement asserts a victory of the French troops over superior force of Germans on the Vosges mountains.

Russia is reported from St. Petersburg to have mobilized 5,500,000 men, 2,000,000 of whom are on the German and Austrian frontiers.

Belgian accounts of yesterday's cavalry encounter, known as the battle of Haelen, give the total German casualties as high as 3,000 killed and wounded. No German report of the engagement has come to hand.

French official reports says the Belgians captured 2,000 German prisoners at Liege and the French have taken 1,500 along the frontier. Belgian authorities report destruction of three German aeroplanes and the death of two of their pilots, while French reports recount the narrow escape of a French aerial scout from German flying machines.
